

SHOPLIFTERS GET JAIL SENTENCESSevere Penalties Dealt Out to Women Who Boldly Ply Trade
as Holidays Near.

Justices Voorhees, Herbert and Frecht in Special Sessions to-day imposed severe sentences on women shoplifters upon being informed by detectives of the Stores Mutual Protective Association that, with the approach of the holiday season, these light-fingered offenders were stealing without restraint. Grace Martin, who gave her address as the St. Paul Hotel and who was arraigned as an old offender, was sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than six months nor more than three years. She stole three pairs of gloves, Gertrude Reed of No. 11 Bismarck

Road, S. I. waitress, was convicted of stealing a dress, a pair of slippers and a comb in the National Outlet Store and was sentenced to five days in the Workhouse. Agnes Parvolen of No. 244 Vanderbilt Avenue, Brooklyn, an Armenian, was sentenced to fifteen days in the Workhouse for stealing a $15 waist from Bonwit Teller & Co.

WOMAN, 70, TRIES TO DIE.

Roomers Smell Gas and Doctor Revives Mrs. Krause.
Mrs. Louise Krause, seventy, was found overcome by gas in a furnished room on the second floor of No. 610 East 167th Street last night by other roomers, who called Patrolman Charles Claire of the East 167th Street Station. An ambulance was called and after Dr. Posner revived Mrs. Krause with the aid of a pulmonator she was taken to Harlem Hospital.
The police say the woman attempted suicide, but could learn no reason for her act.

OFF TO MEDITERRANEAN.

Winter Rush Begins With $50 Parsonagers on Cretic.

The winter rush to the Mediterranean began to-day with the sailing of the White Star liner Cretic for Naples and Genoa by way of Gibraltar. She carried 550 passengers, 250 of them in the cabin. Among them were:
Lady Gordon, Montreal; Col. G. L. Hamilton, Boston; Edwin Robinson, curator of the Metropolitan Museum of Art; Miss Elizabeth Wallace, Philadelphia; N. J. Drig, Gen. John Riddle, Chicago; J. H. Wayne, Cincinnati; Toronto; Mrs. E. D. Hughes, Seattle; Sir Frank and Lady Harbord, Montreal; and Ralph H. Harbord, Australia General at Cairo.

The West Orange Board of Education to-day asked Prosecutor Harrison to start an inquiry into the football game lost on Saturday in Natick between the West Orange and Natick high schools. Charles Rhoades, West Orange, told the board that he had been charged with having thrown a brick at Natick's quarterback, breaking up the game with the score 13-0 in favor of Natick.

Then about 2,500 Natick men besieged the West Orange team and resulted in a riot. The Natick school board has been asked to investigate charges of "foul language, foul play and brutal play on the part of the Natick players and improper conduct by the coach of the Natick team."

BIG SPOT CASH BUY OF
RUGS & LINOLEUMS
$3,000,000 STOCK

Unloaded by One Manufacturer

We made the above announcement in last Sunday's papers and followed up with price cuts that have kept our store crowded throughout the past two days. To make good to those who could not be served during the crowded hours of this sale, we will continue the prices that prevailed throughout Monday and Tuesday for the remainder of this week.

The prices on rugs and linoleums quoted below brought two-days' sales up to the equal of a good week's business. We are prepared with an extra sales force, but you will expedite matters a whole lot by deciding before you come upon room measurements, color, etc., to harmonize with your home furnishings. We will not send out any goods on approval. All sales are final.
